

Hotels

Re

Every little town on the island had a hotel.

To appease the appetites of guests arriving from every possible direction of the continent, a merge of the specialities representing the different regions of the tectonic plate was assembled.

“[...] by creating security through the known and at the same time satisfying curiosity.

It was to be what was considered good pop.“

The continental breakfast,

continental roughly translated contiguous lands, seemed to unite culinary representations from all points of the compass. Much like supergroups in music or the all-star team in basketball. Usually served between 07:00 and 10:00 a continental breakfast includes: orange juice, black tea/coffee, mostly filtered coffee, pastries: croissant, dry toast and dark bread. Northern fruit in the form of jams and spreads. for the savoury: sliced cheese and ham. Eggs and cereals optional.

,Ghosttown‘ - Daniel Fonatti